Key Rating Drivers

High-Quality Credit Portfolio: The Florida Education Investment Trust Fund – FEITF Term Series invests in highly rated securities including U.S. Treasury securities, U.S. government agency securities, deposits such as certificates of deposit and commercial paper. Other securities permitted by the term portfolio’s investment policy may include municipal obligations, repurchase agreements and government money market funds.

Securities are rated at least ‘A/F1’ by Fitch Ratings or equivalent. Investments in the term portfolio are designed to comply with Section 218.415(16) of Florida State Statutes as well as additional standards set by PFM Asset Management LLC (PFMAM).

Stable Investor Base: The portfolio is managed by PFMAM on behalf of the portfolio’s participants. The term portfolio comprises moneys deposited by Florida school districts, political subdivisions of the state or instrumentalities of political subdivisions of the state.

Matched Cash Flows: The term portfolio is a fixed-rate, fixed-term portfolio with a maximum term of one year. The term program is designed to meet the cash flow requirements of investors with the cash flows from the portfolio. The program consists of multiple series with staggered termination dates. Individual series typically terminate within two years of their inception.

The maturity profile of the term portfolio is managed to meet preset redemptions of the portfolio’s participants. Upon investing in the program, a participant selects a planned maturity date on which the portfolio seeks to produce a share price of at least $1.00 for the participant that redeems on said date. Participants may request a premature redemption, but the portfolio may charge significant penalties for any redemption prior to the agreed-upon redemption date and the net asset value may be more, or less, than $1.00 per share.

Capable Investment Advisor: The portfolio is managed by PFMAM, a member of the PFM Group of companies. PFMAM is registered with the SEC under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and specializes in creating investment strategies and managing funds for public-sector, not-for-profit and other institutional clients. The firm is based in Harrisburg, PA and, including affiliates, has more than 35 years’ experience managing high-quality portfolios.

Oversight Decreases Operational Risk: Portfolio oversight and operational controls are consistent with the assigned ratings. The investment policy of the portfolio is reviewed and approved at least annually by the trust’s board. Board members are appointed by the trust’s sponsoring associations. PFMAM’s internal compliance department provides reviews and independent oversight of the portfolio. The chief compliance officer reports directly to the PFM Group board. The portfolio is also subject to annual financial statement audits by an independent, certified public accounting firm.

Industry-Standard Administration and Systems: PFMAM uses appropriate systems for investment, administration, portfolio management and trading. Processes provide decision-making tools for risk analysis and investment allocation tools.

Rating Rationale: FEITF Term Series is rated ‘AAAF’ by Fitch. The ‘AAAF’ Fund Credit Quality Rating reflects the investment portfolio’s vulnerability to losses as a result of defaults in its bond holdings and is based on the actual and expected average credit quality of the portfolio’s investments. Fitch’s evaluation of the term portfolio also considered the management and operational capabilities of PFMAM and the legal and regulatory framework under which the portfolio operates.

In issuing and maintaining its ratings and in making other reports (including forecast information), Fitch relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources Fitch believes to be credible. Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed.

The information in this report is provided "as is" without any representation or warranty of any kind, and Fitch does not represent or warrant that the report or any of its contents will meet any of the requirements of a recipient of the report. A Fitch rating is an opinion as to the creditworthiness of a security. This opinion and reports made by Fitch are based on established criteria and methodologies that Fitch is continuously evaluating and updating. Therefore, ratings and reports are the collective work product of Fitch and no individual, or group of individuals, is solely responsible for a rating or a report. The rating does not address the risk of loss due to risks other than credit risk, unless such risk is specifically mentioned. Fitch is not engaged in the offer or sale of any security. All Fitch reports have shared authorship. Individuals identified in a Fitch report were involved in, but are not solely responsible for, the opinions stated therein. The individuals are named for contact purposes only. A report providing a Fitch rating is neither a prospectus nor a substitute for the information assembled, verified and presented to investors by the issuer and its agents in connection with the sale of the securities. Ratings may be changed or withdrawn at any time for any reason in the sole discretion of Fitch. Fitch does not provide investment advice of any sort. Ratings are not a recommendation to buy, sell, or hold any security. Ratings do not comment on the adequacy of market price, the suitability of any security for a particular investor, or the tax-exempt nature or taxability of payments made in respect to any security. Fitch receives fees from issuers, insurers, guarantors, other obligors, and underwriters for rating securities. Such fees generally vary from US$1,000 to US$750,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent) per issue. In certain cases, Fitch will rate all or a number of issues issued by a particular issuer, or insured or guaranteed by a particular insurer or guarantor, for a single annual fee. Such fees are expected to vary from US$10,000 to US$1,500,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent). The assignment, publication, or dissemination of a rating by Fitch shall not constitute a consent by Fitch to use its name as an expert in connection with any registration statement filed under the United States securities laws, the Financial Services and Markets Act of 2000 of the United Kingdom, or the securities laws of any particular jurisdiction. Due to the relative efficiency of electronic publishing and distribution, Fitch research may be available to electronic subscribers up to three days earlier than to print subscribers.
